THE RACES.—A trotting match of one mile heat took place at the Fair Ground between dark bay horse, "Reb," entered by Mr. Whitlock, and a sorrel horse, "Joe," entered by Mr Craig. Joe won the first heat in three minutes and forty-six seconds—taking a prize of one hundred dollars. "Joe" was awarded the second prize of fifty dollars.

In the second mile heat, which was trotted about a quarter of an hour after the first, "Reb" came out ahead, making the mile in three minutes and twenty-five seconds.

The Judges then announced that the other races would come off at half-past two o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. George Pease, of Harris county, committed suicide on Wednesday last. The Columbus Cotton Manufactory took the premium on sheeting at the St. Louis Fair. The gin house of W. L. Lynch and A. B. Theodore Thomas and his band of fifty-five performers, from Central Park, New York, will visit Augusta the latter part of January. Constitutionalist.

Planters are still bringing in cotton to Albany and storing. Hal Childers, an old negro man, was burned to death accidentally in Whitesville one day last week. Albany has had a grand masquerade ball. Though the number of bales of cotton produced in Southwestern Georgia this year will fall far short of last year's crop, we are glad to be able to state that it has cost the planters about one half the amount last year's crop did.—Albany News.

Savannah had a small fire Thursday night, caused by the explosion of a kerosine lamp. The machinists and blacksmiths of Savannah had a meeting Friday night for the purpose of forming a Protective Union. The walls of the new banking house in Gainesville are approaching completion. Judge Geo. D. Rice has transferred his residence from Dahlonega to Gainesville. Mr. Granson Williamson, of Gainesville, by the breaking of a rope, was precipitated thirty or forty feet to the bottom of a well. His injuries are painful, though not serious. Gainesville is becoming quite a cotton market, and almost every day wagons may be seen from the valley of the Savannah. Mr. James Tuggle, of Hall county, is dead. E. R. Sosebee, of Habersham county, has raised a stalk of Indian corn, measuring 16 feet 6½ inches in length, 12 feet to the first ear, and on upland at that. There is an unusually heavy mast in Hall county this fall.—Air-Line Eagle.

Work on the Brunswick and Albany, and Bainbridge, Cuthbert and Columbus railroads has been suspended. On the former from the Notchaney Creek west, and on the latter from Cuthbert north. Rumor has it that the managers and contractors have completed so much of these roads as they have received indorsed State bonds for, and that they were doing the work just suspended on borrowed Northern capital. A financial crisis in the North has induced the capitalists there to offer the suggestion of suspending for the present. Hon. C. B. Wootten has left Dawson for his new home in Macon. The Dawson Car Works cast the iron door sills for the stores in that town. Quite a number of narrow gauge cars are being shipped from the Dawson Car Works for a North Georgia railroad. There is a man in Dawson who has a beard twenty-nine and a half inches long.—Dawson Journal.

Hon. James M. Smith.

From the Chronicle and Sentinel.]

The following letter, addressed to a gentleman in a neighboring county, has been sent to us with a request for its publication:

COLUMBUS, October 3, 1871.

MY DEAR SIR—Your letter, saying that the Hon. James M. Smith, member elect to the Legislature from this county, is spoken of in connection with the Speakership of the next House of Representatives, and asking what manner of man he is, has been received, and I avail myself of the first opportunity to send you a hurried reply. It may be well to premise that Mr. Smith is my friend and partner—a relation which, while not permitted to influence my pen, at the same time furnishes the best opportunity to judge of character and qualifications.

Well, then, he was born in Twiggs county, of honorable but poor parents, and was brought up and educated in Monroe county. He is literally a self-made man. When a boy he read everything he could lay his hands upon. Sometimes he carried his books to his father's blacksmith shop and studied by the light of the forge, while he worked the bellows, or read at night by pineknot fires. He prepared himself for the profession of the law, was admitted to the bar, and subsequently removed to Upson county, where he soon rose to distinction in the Flint and adjoining Circuits. He did not confine himself exclusively to the law, however, but extended his studies to history, literature and the more useful sciences, and is now one of our best informed men, as he is one of the ablest, most honorable and liberal-minded lawyers and statesmen in the State. His party was in the minority in the county and Congressional District in which he formerly resided, and hence, though frequently called upon to lead a forlorn hope, he was never elected to and never filled any office. He was disabled in battle during the late war, and was subsequently sent to the Confederate Congress, where he served one or two sessions. Under the late act of Congress, therefore, he is not incapacitated, as I understand it, to hold any office, State or Federal, to which the people may see fit to call him.

From Upson Mr. Smith came to Columbus to reside after the war. He at once took rank with the ablest members of his profession on either side of the Chattahoochee, and is universally esteemed by our people for his modesty, integrity and ability. He was pressed into service at the last election very much against his will, and chosen a member of the House of Representatives by a very large majority. He is now in the prime of life, physically and intellectually; possesses a commanding person; is modest and retiring in his disposition; does not desire office; is a life-long Democrat, conservative in his sentiments, and free from the vagaries and isms of the day; has a broad, well-balanced mind, and a heart that beats responsive to the honor and welfare of the people, from whose vigorous loins he sprung. Indeed I regard him as one of the coming men of the South, and believe he would make a worthy successor to the illustrious Jenkins, who so long and so satisfactorily filled the Speaker's chair in the House of Representatives.

Very truly, yours,

P. W. A.

☞ Those unreasonable people who have complained that the Congressional Ku-Klux Committee have effected nothing of any practical value by their labors, will be apt to change their tone when they learn that these gentlemen have made a most astonishing discovery, which is, that the enormous debts that have been saddled on the reconstructed States, amounting in the aggregate to nearly $227,000,000, have not been incurred through the rascality of the carpet-bag officials who have managed to get the control of affairs in nearly all the Southern States, but are the result of the depreciation of Confederate bonds. The Washington Chronicle says the committee feel confident that they will be able to show that such is the case. The explanation of this is, that the new Governments have been obliged to replace moneys belonging to the sinking, university, and school funds which have been lost through being invested in rebel securities. This is about the weakest effort to whitewash fraud that has yet been attempted. In the expressive language of Shakespeare, it is "too thin."

THE PRAIRIE FIRES.—A man who had been with Sherman in his "march to the sea" was caught in the midst of a fire which was approaching him from all sides. Having no matches to create what is called "setting a back fire," and death staring him in the face, his wit suggested a "gopher hole." Setting at work with a will that a man would use who was working for life, he attacked the sod with a large hunting knife, cutting a large piece away; he rolled it back and at once commenced throwing the soft, dry earth upward and outward, and soon had a hole dug of sufficient size to admit his body. Carefully drawing the sod toward him he succeeded in drawing it over his body, and then filled up the "chinks" with dirt from within. He lay there until the fire passed over him and was passing furiously on its way miles distant, then slowly he crawled out of his living grave, heated fearfully, but injured in no way whatever. His soldier experience had saved his life.—La Crosse Republican.

☞ There are one thousand and two hundred paper mills in the United States at present, which produce annually five hundred thousand pounds of paper, and the demand is still greater than the supply. Scarcely any foreign paper is now imported, and that chiefly of an inferior quality, from Belgium, where the production is cheap. Large quantities of rags are imported, as much as ninety thousand pounds having come to this country from England during the past year.

☞ The Chicago fire is lighting many Americans, now in Europe, homeward across the ocean Some of them come to search among the embers and debris for the hearthstones of once happy homes.—Age.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, October 21.—The Southern overland mail coach was attacked near Trinidad, Colorado. The horses ran away and the robbers got nothing.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 21.—The administration wing of the Republican party to-night nominated Franz Seigel for Register, G. C. Barrett for Supreme Court Judge and Charles P. Daloy for Judge of Court of Common Pleas. The ticket is the same as was nominated last night by the Reform Democracy.

PENNSYLAINA.

PHILADELPHIA, October 21.—The National Committee of the Union League have met, Governor Geary presiding. A communication was received requesting a thorough reorganization of the League in Louisiana. The National Council have been called to Philadelphia on December thirteenth.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE, October 21.—The polygamy trials are progressing. The Mormons plead that they had no intention of committing a crime by the plurality of their marriages, and that that intention was essential to conviction; they could not be guilty of adultery, because they married according to the usage of the Mormon Church. A number of additional arrests for laciviousness have been made.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, October 21.—The transpired Gastein Conference have agreed upon energetic measures for the suppression of the International Society. Italy refused to co-operate because its labor agitators oppose the International Society.

PRUSSIA.

BERLIN, October 21.—A distinguished prelate, an emisary of the Pope, was referred to Emperor William and to Bismarck for an answer as to whether it would be allowable to hold the approaching Conclave outside of Rome, in some of the towns of France for instance. Bismarck evaded the reply of the Emperor, and sent an autograph letter of sympathy to the Pope.

ITALY.

ROME, October 21.—The Cardinal advise the Pope to quit Rome to preserve his independence. The Pope has almost determined to depart when the Italian Parliament is convoked.

☞ THE CONSTITUTION, for a long time, has been the butt of a terrible archery—the victim, as it were, of unprovoked assaults, emanating from that portion of the Georgia press headed by men who indulge in the extravagant hope of achieving notoriety at the expense of the ruin of others. These attacks upon THE CONSTITUTION, with a view to injure its well earned popularity, thus far have proved utterly abortive. It has stood the ordeal commendably, and still stands at the head of the list of Democratic journals. There will appear upon the first page of our next week's issue, an article from the pen of one of its able editors—Col. Avery—under the head of "Editorial Personals and the Situation," which we commend to the thoughtful consideration of our readers. Subscribe for THE CONSTITUTION. [Calhoun Times.

WOODEN PAVEMENTS.—We have fought this nuisance from the beginning, have repeatedly demonstrated the high price, the poor wearing, the worse than worthlessness, the imminent peril, of having inflammable pavements stuck down in the middle of a city. The Chicago fire supplies the final and irrefutable argument. The flames crossed and leaped along those horrible pavements, every block of which was coated with tar, carrying the fire up and down streets, and preventing engines or men from getting within reach of the burning buildings. An eye witness says they burned like tinder—"like petroleum" would have been a more accurate phrase. In the crowded parts of New York this pavement should be rippe l up at once, leaving us the security of solid, uninflammable ground until a first class stone pavement can be had. New York Journal of Commerce.

☞ We do not engage to take any amendment to the Constitution, or any part of it as a finality forever. We may change all parts of the Constitution. It may not be proper and may never be necessary to change some parts of our Constitution, but we still have the power to do so in a lawful way, should we ever think such change necessary—Prentiss Recorder, Booneville, Miss.

We are glad the Prentiss Recorder says "we may change all parts of the Constitution." It warms the cockles of our heart to believe that the Prentiss Recorder, as soon as it can find time, will consider whether or not it ought to abolish those amendments. If the Recorder will only abolish the amendments, and earthquakes, and yellow fever, and nuisances generally, it may rely upon receiving ample remuneration in the increase of its subscription list.—Mobile Tribune.

☞ President Grant's liberality to Chicago in respect of his private Boston blow-out, fully justifies the title we have claimed for him, of "Ulysses the Magnificent." We defy history to produce any ruler more liberal with the money of the State or of other people—unless it was Julius Cæsar, who emptied the coffers of the Roman Treasury, at a single stroke, into the laps of his soldiery. Age.

☞ Mobile is again moving for an outlet of the Mississippi trade. The project is to open a canal from the Mississippi, between Helena and Memphis, and following the Tallahatchie, Yazoo, Big Black and other streams to Mobile Bay, where ships and steamers of the largest class can load at the docks and pass out without lightering.—Times.

☞ Two countrymen gaping around a Saratoga hotel, the other day, were approached by a lady wearing a fashionable trail. One of the party dodged it, but the other walked straight across it, and on finding out his error apologized with, "I beg your pardon, madam, I thought you had passed some time ago."

DYSPEPSIA.—Nothing will so permanently give tone to the digestive organs, regulate the appetite, overcome general debility and nervous prostration, and energize the whole system as Dr. Price's Blood Enricher. A single bottle will convince the most incredulous of its building up qualities. It acts at once by increasing the appetite, renewing the old blood, toning up the stomach. All are requested to try it, and of its good results they will be satisfied. Thopson, Steele & Price manufacture it, as also Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and Special Flavorings. Sold by druggists and grocers. oct10—deod2w&w2t

A PLAIN STATEMENT OF FACTS.—We do not promise to perform impossibilities. If a person's lungs are gone, we cannot make him a new pair. If his liver is rotten with ulcers, we cannot make it sound. If every bone in his body has become diseased from the abusive use of mercury, we do not promise to make him a new skeleton. If all the membranes of the inner man have been eaten away by the use of vile quack medicines, we do not agree to restore them as good as new. But it is no exaggeration to say that since the discovery of Plantation Bitters, millions upon millions of invalids afflicted as above described, have taken this excellent tonic and medicine, and felt at once as if they had been "born again." oct18-deod1w&w1t

THE MEANS OF ESCAPE.—The fall has many perils for the weak and feeble, and its sudden atmospheric changes are trying to the constitutions of even the robust. The chilling temperature of the nights, as compared with the almost summer warmth of the days, necessarily exercises an unhealthy influence on all who are exposed to it. Hence dysentery, diarrhœa, intermittent fevers, bilious attacks, and derangements of all the secretions, are common at this season. The true way to escape them is to meet the causes with a protective and invigorating medicine. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are designed for this exigency. This powerful vegetable specific relieves the system of all acrid humors, purifies the fluids, tones the secretive organs, promotes healthy evaporation through the pores, increases the activity of the digestive functions, cheers the spirits, and regulates the bowels. To do this is to make the whole body vigorous, and render it proof against the vicissitudes of temperature, and against malaria. A course of the great tonic and alterative is, therefore, in all cases advisable as a preventive at this season. If, on the other hand, the mischief is already done, and intermittent or remittent fever is actually present or the liver, bowels, or stomach disordered, there is no medicine so certain to effect a quick and thorough cure as this harmless and agreeable preparation. oct17-deod1w&w1t

More Radicalism.

The last thing out is that Radical ex-Senator E. D. Morgan, of New York, and Representative Oakes Ames, of Massachusetts, got, one $30,000, and the other $20,000, for signing as trustees of the Pacific Railroad Congressional Committee the first mortgage bonds of the Pacific Railroad.

The Atlanta Constitution.

One of the most prominent and popular papers in Georgia is THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION—daily and weekly—and among the truest and most useful men of the press is Col. Avery, its accomplished editor-in-chief. And, by the way, Col. Avery is the successor of our old friend Col. Carey W. Styles, who founded THE CONSTITUTION some four years back. We feel much gratified at placing THE CONSTITUTION upon our exchange list.—Edgefield (S. C.) Advertiser.

Painful Pedestrianism.

Weston, the notorious walker, has just walked 100 miles in 24 hours. This was done under promise to walk 113 miles in the 24 hours. The account of this achievement shows Weston to be a great donkey. On his ninety-third mile he got sleepy, and had to be cow-hided and ice clamped to his head by his friends to keep him awake. Lemonade, beef tea and tonics were poured down his throat to keep him to time. He suffered terribly, but held on. His pallid face, set teeth, blood-dilated nostrils, showed his distress. The men yelled and the women cackled at him encouragingly. Ammonia and whisky carried him through the last mile, when he caved.

Queer way, this, to make a living.

Circulation.

We gave our advertisers the benefit of an extra issue of our Fair Bulletin—that of yesterday, one day after the close of the Fair. Our advertisers have promptly responded with the cash, and we thank them for their voluntary expressions of entire satisfaction. The advertisements were inserted at low rates, as the Bulletin was intended for the mutual benefit of THE CONSTITUTION and our patrons.

The approaching session of the Legislature, we presume, has something to do with the lists of subscribers pouring into the office, for we are not vain enough to attribute it solely to the merits of THE CONSTITUTION. But a subscriber gained, from whatever cause, we rarely lose. No effort shall be spared to swell the tide of public favor, which THE CONSTITUTION now enjoys; and our subscribers and advertisers may rest assured that increasing prosperity will but enhance our efforts and labor in their behalf.

Book Notices.

History of the Working and Burgher Classes. By M. Adolphe Granier De Cassignac. Translated by Ben. E. Green, of Georgia. Philadelphia: Claxton, Remsen & Haffelfinger, publishers. For sale in Atlanta by M. Lynch & Co.

This work is an intensely interesting one. The preface of the translator, Mr. Ben. E. Green, of this State, is a very elaborate one, setting forth among other propositions the causes of the late war, the effect of negro slavery in the South, the struggle of classes in this as in all other countries, the fusion of elements producing the Republican party, and that emancipation has cheapened labor, reducing its wages and diminishing its share of the products. The Translator thinks that even Mr. Stephens has not reached the real causes of the war, which are claimed to be the "Conflict between Monarchy and Democracy," and the "Irrepressible desire of capital to cheapen labor." In "The Laboring and Bergher Classes" is included all the learned professions—all who labor with the brain or with the hand, and who wish to live and grow rich by the fruits of their own honest industry. De Cassignac was a student "absorbed in the solution of the facts and philosophy of history." He has treated his subject exhaustingly, and with great faithfulness as a historian. The work is an exceedingly valuable one, and should find its way into every library. The preface alone is fully worth the price of the book.

Bertha, the Beauty: A "Story of the Southern Revolution." By SARAH J. C. WHITELSEY, author of "Heart-drops from Memory's Urn," "The Stranger's Stratagem," etc.

This is one of the most entertaining novels which has recently appeared. The home of the heroine is Virginia and the principal scenes occur there. The story is thrillingly told.

These books are bound in the usual beautiful and elegant style of Claxton, Remsen & Haffelfinger, of Philadelphia, a house rapidly growing into popular national favor.

Geology and Mineralogy of Georgia, by Dr. M. F. STEPHENSON, Globe Publishing Company, Atlanta, Ga.

All who wish to know something of the Geology and Mineralogy of Georgia with a particular description of her rich "Diamond District," and the process of washing for diamonds, her gold, silver, cooper, lead, iron, manganese, graphite, slate, marble, &c., will do well to procure this work. Dr. Stephenson was formerly Assayer in the United States Branch Mint.

E. H. Butler & Co., New American Readers:

These readers proceed upon the principle of imitating nature and following her own courses instead of forcing her into other channels by artificial constraint. The true method of instruction, they claim, is to "teach spelling through reading and not reading through spelling." The authors of this series are said to be the first to make application of the principle involved in this plan combining the word method, the phonic system, and object teaching with the old A B C method of Dilworth and Webster. These readers deserve the attention and consideration of teachers and pupils in our primary schools. Fresh, new and original withal, beautifully bound and embellished with elegant and instructive wood cuts upon every page, they will charm all with their execution.

Prof. A. G. Brown is the Atlanta agent for the school publications of E. H. Butler & Co., Phila[illegible]

Frank Blair.

General Blair has made a speech in Montgomery, Alabama. He contrasted the burning of Chicago with the desolation of the South, and he compared the vile scamps that revelled in the burning ruins of the one to the delegation of miserable carpet-baggers that have plundered the other in her desolated condition. He also contrasted Southern sympathy with the Chicago sufferers with the want of Northern sympathy for the distressed South.

He advises against the policy of Southern nonrepresentation in the National Democratic Convention. The following paragraphs will explain his reason for this, as well as his position on the New Departure:

I tell you their abstinence now will be claimed as a refusal to go with the Northern Democrats because they have adopted the New Departure. [Sensation.] It will be claimed that the spirit of rebellion still lingers and burns under the smouldering ashes, and it is lighted into a new flame of indignation because the Democratic party of the North or a large portion of them have assumed, for reasons that seemed good to them to make certain concessions in their platform. It would be suicidal; it would be destructive of your very best interests.

I do not know how well it is known, but to those who care for my opinions, it is known that I am no friend of the New Departure (prolonged and enthusiastic applause and cheers.) But I believe in the patriotism and the purity of the motives of those who have chosen that path; but while I shall still hold to the opinions which I have heretofore expressed, and shall not yield one inch of my own convictions as to the unconstitutionality of the usurpations of the Radical party, I am willing to fight the Radicals in any shape the Democratic party may determine upon. (Long and hearty applause.) I believe that the New Departure, so far from being a good policy, has proven disastrous; but what the party adopts as its policy I shall maintain without surrendering my own convictions. [Applause.] I believe that policy has failed to give us success in the elections of this summer and autumn; and for the reason that it was a confession in open court of our inability to carry the elections upon our own principles; it was a confession that we must make a concession in order to draw to us others who had heretofore acted against us; but in making that concession it failed to place candidates before the people in harmony with that platform. Thus, while some Democrats were disgusted at this concession, no Republicans were conciliated. * * * *

And again: instead of going for a New Departure, I would prefer to go for a man who represents the New Departure; I would prefer to give that guarantee to the disaffected Republicans. Rather than to go back upon my own principles, I would prefer to make a choice of Republicans, and go for a man who should be nominated by the disaffected Republicans; or, what would be better, one who might be nominated by the Democrats in their convention, and thus draw to us by a much stronger guarantee than the mere words of a platform, the support of those who are disaffected with Grant and the Radical party. (Applause.) In other words I do not see that we go back on our principles in making a choice between candidates, neither of whom may suit us exactly—we could all vote for a republican who was in favor of universal amnesty, against the Ku Klux bills. (Applause,) and against the military laws (prolonged and enthusiastic applause) while the most ancient Bourbon in the State of Alabama could vote for such a republican in preference to Ulysses S. Grant, (Renewed applause.)

General Blair points to the example of Virginia and Missouri. He alludes to the sectional feeling between the North and South, and the difficulty of quieting this feeling. And he pointed to the vast foreign vote in this country as the element free from this feeling, to which the Democracy must look to check the tyranny of the stronger section. He alluded to the position of Schurz and his German friends as having left Grant and burned their ships.

We opine that Schurz and Blair may be working together to repeat the Missouri experiment on a national scale in 1872.

Carl Schurz.

The fact that this able German is the leader of a million of his people in this country gives his utterances special significance, and his position great weight. His career invests the man with extraordinary interest. He is an excellent type of a large class of men who, with Democratic convictions, have labored with the Republican party on the war question. Possessing a mind of unusual vigor and a spirit of uncommon independence and nerve, probably few men have less fear of the party lash, and certainly none have been more outspoken against party wrongs.

His speech in Nashville broached the idea of a new party that should unite the Democrats and the Republican enemies of personal government. He has just delivered another speech in Louisville—a very brilliant and powerful effort, in which he presses his idea of a new party.

His opposition to Grant and the Radical faction he thus strongly puts:

"And what was it but party spirit that made so many Republicans tamely acquiesce in those barefaced usurpations of the President in the San Domingo case—acts of usurpation so naked, so alarming, and so indefensible, that no thinking man can attempt to justify or even excuse them without sacrificing his best convictions? In no case, perhaps, has party spirit more glaringly demonstrated its sinster influence than in this, where the approval of the President's acts means the establishment of a precedent which, in the face of fundamental law, makes the peace and honor of the people a mere plaything of one man's ambition; a case in which all argument so ridiculously failed, that nothing remained to the President's defenders but to denounce those as traitors to the party who refused to bow their heads slavishly to a barefaced attempt at personal government and who stood up for the Constitution and the liberties of their country."

It will be observed that the issue is made boldly here. And the breach that it indicates is full of potent augury if rightly used.

The following paragraphs teem with import, and afford matter for careful reflection to those who desire Democratic success, and who recognize that such success must come by the aid of those Republicans who are opposed to centralism.

The liberal Republicans are indeed most sincerely and ardently in favor of a just and conciliatory policy. They are indeed most earnestly opposed to all unconstitutional stretches of power and to all encroachments upon the legitimate sphere of local self-government. But they are also most honestly determined to maintain the logical and legitimate results of the war; in fact they look upon their maintenance as the first condition of a progressive and reformatory policy. They will, therefore, not in any way jeopardize it. They are of the opinion that a victory of the Democratic party would, in its consequences, not indeed permanently overthrow, but at least temporarily disturb the new order of things; and that this disturbance would most probably lead ultimately to further and more dangerous stretches of power on the part of the Central Government, which they could not be able to stem. They can, therefore, not think of joining an organization whose success would be calculated to produce two effects, endangering two of the most important objects they are striving for."

Mr. Schurz makes the remarkable statement that Democratic success would lead to the very centralism that he now condemns in the Radical administration. It is indeed anomalous that such a result should be ascribed to the triumph of the constitutional party. And it is extraordinary to find an independent Republican honestly contending against the "dangerous stretches of power" of the Central Government. But the connection of these things with the apprehension of the Democracy disturbing "war results" affords at once the explanation and suggests the remedy.

The disentanglement of war results from the great issue of Constitutionalism against Centralism is the inevitable preliminary to Democratic success. To this, effort must be directed.

Mr. Schurz thinks the Democratic party has outlived its vitality, and he adds:

"This is not owing to the differences caused by the new departure; for without the new departure, if the party adhered to the platform of 1868, it would be still weaker."

We hope to see the Democratic party show Mr. Schurz that he is wrong, that it has vitality enough to clutch the government from the madmen and criminals that now prostitute it, and we further hope to see Mr. Schurz and his many constitutional Republican friends join the Democracy in this good work.

All of the Southern people are emphatic in the declaration that the "logical and legitimate results of the war," are conceded by the South. Mr. Stephens has made bold and unmistakable profert of his assent to this position. Let this question of war-results be wisely settled, and the victory for Constitutionalism is certain. To this task the Democracy must address itself in the spirit of fairness, good sense and conviction, utterly free from sectionalism.

The Iowa Election.

A dispatch dated Dubuque, 11th, from the Chairman of the Republican State Committee to Secretary Belknap, says:

"Carpenter's majority in the eighteen counties heard from is 9,000. It will undoubtedly reach 45,000 in the State. We lose one Representative in Polk county, one in Henry, one in Webster, one in Jefferson, all in Johnson, and gain in Dubuque."

Another dispatch (probably from a Democratic source) says that the Radical majority is between 30,000 and 35,000. At the last election it was 42,489.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, October 17th, 1871.

You have seen a buzzard circling lazily in the blue sky, above a carcass; then drifting away to return with reinforcements, until a crowd of these scavengers hangs over the scene of their anticipated repast. They circle nearer and nearer, then settle upon the limbs of adjacent trees, and, finally, swoop upon the carrion and proceed to tear it to bits. In some such way do the carpet-bag Congressmen flock to Washington, to gorge themselves with ill-gotten gains. We hear of them now at New York, or nearer Baltimore. Then one appears upon the avenue, and another; and they will continue to arrive until the appointed time for their spoilations to commence. Some of these carpet-baggers who assume to represent Southern constituents, have not visited their districts during the recess, but have spent the summer at their Northern homes, or imitating Grant and his Cabinet by displaying themselves at New England watering places. It is soothing to recall the fact that during the past few months several of these carpet-baggers have run their race, and will no longer be able to inflict wrongs upon the constituents they have so zealously misrepresented. When the South gets rid of its carpet-baggers it will become peaceful and prosperous, and not before. This is a matter of greater importance to the Southern people than the election of a Democratic President. Carpet-bagism is equivalent to the seven plagues of Egypt. But I am wandering from my text. I merely wished to refer to the preparations for the coming session, which are now well nigh complete. The Capitol has undergone its usual renovation; and about the city the painter and whitewasher have been exceedingly busy. The trees have not yet scattered their leaves, and under the bright October sun, Washington looks charmingly, save where its streets have been torn up by the march of improvement inaugurated by the territorial government.

THE RADICAL CENSUS.

The late census was taken by Radicals, in the interest of the Radical party. It is of no value save as a political machine. It is grossly inaccurate, and purposely made so. An increase which does not exist was recorded in sections where Radical ideas prevail, while the returns from the Southern States have been so manifested as to prevent an increase of representation in that quarter. For example, I learn that the census returns place the population of Atlanta at 16,000; Savannah at 17,000; Augusta at 8,000; and the State at about 1,200,000. The State is thus cheated out of about 400,000 of population, and instead of being two additional representations in Congress, her representation will stand as it is now. This radical census further shows that the negro population in Georgia has increased, while the white population has decreased.

THE COTTON CROP.

The Agricultural Bureau is filling the cotton market again with reports of a short crop. The gist of the latest report published in the city papers to-day is as follows:

"The present indications do not point to a crop of more than three millions of bales, and if the remaining season should be unfavorable for the development and gathering of the fibre, a smaller amount must be accepted."

These reports have some effect on the New York market, which of late has been unsettled and panicy, and inquiries have been received here from interested parties, as to the reliability and integrity of the officials of the Agricultural Bureau. It is obvious that they must exert, through their reports, a very considerable influence on the cotton market, and in those speculating days this influence is worth something.

PERSONALITIES.

Bowles, the surveyor of the port of Savannah, has been here for some days. He is reported to be "in trouble," though in what respect has not yet appeared. His father-in-law, Senator Hill, is expected shortly.

Isaac Seeley, of Savannah, where he is known as "Old Junt," is here, and is suppose to be looking for something soft in the way of a Treasury tit.

J. E. Bryant, of Augusta, arrived last week. His mission has not been disclosed, but he is, no doubt, looking after the interests of one J. E. Bryant.

Hon. D. A. Walker, of Georgia, is registered at the Ebbitt House. ARGUS.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, October 21.—Gen. Belknap addressed a letter to the Solicitor of the Treasury, Barfield, whether steamboats, whose certificates have expired, required new inspection under the new law. Barfield concludes his letter: Taking this view of the question presented in your letter, I would suggest that you cause as rapidly as the convenience of the officers will permit, a new inspection to be made of all steamers subject to the provision of the Act, in order that the owners thereof may be correctly advised of the additional requirements of the present law.

FRANCE.

PARIS, October 21.—While Prince Napoleon was on his way to Marseilles, as the train stopped at a town, the Valence people who had heard of the Prince's journey, gathered about the railway station and demanded his surrender into their hands. On being informed that the Prince traveled under safe conduct of the Government they vented hatred in hisses, yells, and threats, which followed the train until it had passed beyond the limits of the town.

ANDES FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.—This Company is all right, as appears from the card of its worthy agent, Col. L. B. Davis.

DARK CLOUD.—A number of colored witnesses are in the city attending the session of the sub-Ku-Klux Committee.

PERSONAL.—Hon. J. J. Jones and Col. A. M. Rodgers, of Burke county, are in the city, looking as fine as magnolia blooms.

CONTINUED.—The hearing of argument in the motion for a new trial in the case of Rev. M. D. Wood, was yesterday continued until Saturday next.

PASSING AWAY.—The church edifice known and revered as "Wesley Chapel" is rapidly passing away. The timbers are being torn away and hauled off.

ROSWELL FACTORY.—A premium was awarded at the Fair to the yarn made at Roswell Factory, and exhibited by their agents here, M. C. & J. F. Kiser.

DIPLOMA AWARDED.—The Philadelphia and Atlanta Wine and Liquor Company were awarded a diploma at the Atlanta Industrial Fair for their Pride of Pennsylvania Rye Whisky.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—The Rev. Hermann Bokum, of the Reformed Church, will preach in the English language, in the First Presbyterian Church, on Marietta street, to-morrow morning at 10½ o'clock.

ORANGES.—In the garden of Major S. B Wight, at West End, he has an orange tree that has been bearing its golden fruit for two years. Last year the tree bore fifty or sixty oranges, but this year it has not borne so much.

PERSONAL.—We had a call on yesterday from Alderman Thomas Daily, one of the City Fathers of Chattanooga. As he is quite good looking genial and social, we will say to the ladies that he is a young bachelor.

BEAUTIFUL BEYOND DESCRIPTION.—The many elegant and rare goods at McBride & Co's. suitable for bridal and holiday presents, must be seen to be appreciated. If you want anything of the kind at a low price, don't fail to look at their stock.

REV. J. T. LEFTWICH.—Rev. J. T. Leftwich and family returned to this city yesterday from Virginia, and will officiate to-day in the Central Presbyterian Church, morning and night, at the usual hours. We regret to learn that he left his father still alive but past all hope of recovery.

MCBRIDE & SMITH.—This popular firm received four or five medals at the Fair, for their carriages and buggies. This is an Atlanta institution. Messrs. McBride & Smith are live, go-ahead men, and turn out work that reflects credit upon them and the city.

LIVELY CONTEST.—Yesterday the R. E. Lee Fire Company of this city and the West Point Company had a contest for a purse of $100. Both companies did exceedingly well. The R. E. Lee threw 206 feet 9 inches, and the West Point Engine 203 feet 3 inches. The purse was awarded to the R. E. Lee.

MUSCOGEE MANUFACTURING COMPANY.—We learn that Messrs. M. C. & J. F. Kiser have been appointed agents in this city, for the Muscogee Manufacturing Company. The goods of this company received premiums at our Fair this week, and at the St Louis, and Cincinnati Fairs.

WINSHIP'S COTTON GIN.—At "Our Fair" last week Winship's Cotton Gin was awarded a diploma and silver medal. This is but a just award to a popular and meritorious gin. The demand for it, we learn, is quite heavy, and Messrs. Winship & Bro. have had to increase their facilities in order to keep pace with the demands.

PRIDE OF PENNSYLVANIA WHISKY.—The Philadelphia and Atlanta Wine and Liquor Company was awarded a diploma at the Atlanta Fair, for their Pride of Pennsylvania Rye Whisky. The judges, we learn, were competent, and were unanimous, in their decision. It is pronounced by connoisseurs to be the best in market.

THE AUGUSTA BAR.—We notice present in attendance on the Supreme Court Hon. Henry W. Hilliard, Col. Josephus Ganahl, Col. C. Snead, Gen. A. R. Wright, and Col. W. W. Montgomery, prominent members of the Augusta bar. One can well say, after looking at these gentlemen, that the Augusta bar is handsomely represented; and after hearing them speak, ably represented.

CHAMBERLIN, BOYNTON & CO.—At the store of Messrs. Chamberlin, Boynton & Co. can be found a fine selection of ladies' dress good, silks, laces and dry goods. There is quite a rush of the ladies upon the stores for dry goods. The reason is that Messrs. Chamberlin, Boynton & Co. keep excellent goods, and are not ashamed to let the public know of it. They are judicious and liberal advertisers.

EXCITING PASTIME.—At Oglethorpe Park, to-morrow, some of the fleetest horses of the country will test their speed. There will doubtless be a large attendance by the lovers of this exciting amusement. A handsome purse has been raised, and will be contested for by horses resting here on their way to Macon.

AN ATLANTA BELLE CAPTURES A TOWN. The "gay and festive" editor of the Washington Gazette says that the Atlanta Belle whose departure we recently noticed, has arrived in Washington, and, "judging from appearances, she will break all the young hearts" there. "Our clothing merchants have had to send on already for an extra supply of fashionable clothing for gentlemen, their large stocks having been sold out very soon after her arrival."

ATTENTION FIFTH WARD DEMOCRATS.—In consequence of the call for a citizens meeting on next Tuesday night, the meeting of the Fifth Ward Democratic Club will take place on Wednesday night at seven and a half o'clock. Every Democrat in the Ward is earnestly requested to be on hand as business of importance will be brought before the meeting. Democrats throughout the city are respectfully invited.
By order of the President,
H. W. WOODING, Secretary.

STEAM GONG.—Messrs. Porter & Butler have at their foundry a steam gong that may be heard twenty miles. This "muchly" astonished the people; but this enterprising firm are determined to keep abreast of the fame of Atlanta, and are not only telling the hours of work for their laborers (from 7 to 12 and from 1 to 6), but also furnishing true time daily to all Atlanta—yes, verily, to the "country round about."

TO THE PRESS OF GEORGIA.—At the meeting of the Georgia Press Convention in Augusta in May last, it was resolved to meet in Atlanta on the first Wednesday in November. The semi-annual meeting will be held in that city on that day. Newspapers will send their annual dues to C. H. C. Willingham at once.
A full attendance of the press is desired.
W. G. WHIDBY, Recording Secretary.
Newspapers will please notice this call.

ATLANTA AHEAD.—At the Fair just closed at Oglethorpe Park, carriages were exhibited from Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania—some thirty vehicles were on exhibition. The result of the awarding of the premiums was, that out of seven, four were given to Messrs. McBride & Smith, carriage manufacturers, of Atlanta, for their beautiful and excellent work. These gentlemen, we learn, are receiving orders for carriages from various parts of Georgia, Alabama and other Southern States. And why not?

DEGIVE'S.—"Loves Labor Lost," was well cast last night, and each character admirably sustained throughout, showing a style which only stage education, together with talent and practical experience can produce. Miss Alice Vane was happy in her impersonation. Her readings were well given, evincing talent and study; her enunciation and gesticulation were very fine, while her general conception of the character of "Mary Mortimer," satisfied the large and intelligent audience that she had bestowed upon it care and thought. Her appearance at DeGive's this season has been highly creditable—yes brilliant.
Mrs. Wildman, Miss Isabel Vane, and Mrs. Hubbard are in great form with the [illegible] of [illegible] Wildman, Eugene Cramer, in fact, the entire company evince much talent in their specialities.

May-the-Way is a charming little actress, and it is a wonder to see such life, sparkle and talent in so small a body. John Templeton was very good in his impersonation of Admiral Kingston. As [illegible] in the Barletta Scenes, Templeton was capital. Templeton deserves success. In general heartiness, which men call geniality, he is a fair type of a Southern man, while, in his rollicking humor, he resembles an Irishman. His object is to please. His [illegible] are ever racy, but always healthy; and if he caters to any quality of our nature, it is not the worst, but the most humorous.

LIFE INSURANCE.—The Washington Insurance Company, of New York, having shared the fate of many others by the Chicago fire, W. F. Pattillo, their agent proposes to substitute their policies by others in such companies as the Ætna, of Hartford; Phœnix, of Hartford; Franklin, of Philadelphia, and Southern Mutual, of Athens, Georgia, at his own expense.

Such generosity should be appreciated and rewarded by liberal patronage.

Mr. Pattillo represents some of the best companies in America. See advertisement.

THE ÆTNA.—This mammoth fire insurance company speaks through the columns of THE CONSTITUTION this morning in a double column advertisement. In the great Charleston fire of 1861, the Ætna lost $14,600, which was promptly settled in 1865, as soon as communication was re-established at the close of the war. In the great New York fire in 1835, this company, but a pigmy then in comparison with its present proportions, paid heavy losses without detriment, the officers coming forward with their individual capital, which however was not needed. Now the Chicago fire inflicts great loss, but scarcely jostles the Ætna, with its cash assets of nearly six millions and an annual income of four millions. Mr. J. P. Constable, Special Agent Southern Department, is now in the city and will be glad to furnish any information desired.

THE LADIES' FAIR.—After consultation the ladies have determined to hold their Fair for two nights longer. On Monday night quite an attraction is offered, in the arrangement effected, to have declamation from the youthful orators, who won the premiums at the Oglethorpe Park Fair—at 8 o'clock. On Tuesday night there will be a grand auction of all articles not disposed of.

We know that many will be glad of the opportunity to meet once more, at their respective tables, the ladies who have so tirelessly striven to make the Fair a success. At table No. 1 were Mrs. M—r and Miss Susie C—z; at tables 2, 3, and 4, were Mrs. H. L. and W. T. W—n, Mrs. and Miss Nannie C., Mrs. G. W. D. C—k, Mrs. C. S., Mrs. H., Mrs. P.—, Mrs. and Miss Mamie P-ts. At tables 5 and 6 were Mrs. N., Mrs N—n, Mrs. Er L—e, Mrs. Willie and Mrs. J. B. P—k, Mrs. W. B. B., and Miss Ella H. At table No. 7, we believe, were the active pearl-seekers, Mr. R. A. H's Sunday School class.

Of the Floral Bower we shall say something to-morrow afternoon.

Remember Monday and Tuesday nights. Go early.

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.—We have no hesitancy in endorsing the following, which we clip from the New York Commercial Pathfinder:

"We are gratified to learn that this popular Insurance Company, which for nearly twenty years has received the well merited confidence of the public, will suffer no interruption to its business from losses incurred by the late severe calamity at Chicago.

By its semi-annual statement of July last, its Capital and Assets are shown to exceed $4,500,000, placing its entire solvency beyond all question. The "Home" possesses an element of unusual strength in the entire confidence reposed in its management, and if requisite, its Capital stock could be increased to any desired amount.

The wisdom of insuring in offices remote from the location of the property is shown by the fact that while in the case of such extensive conflagrations as those in New York in 1835, and more recently in Portland and Chicago, the local offices are generally crippled, the risks placed at a distance are safe. The Chicago merchants who were insured in the Home will receive the full amount of their policies.

Nothing more fully demonstrates the substantial foundation upon which the Home Insurance Company is based than the satisfactory manner in which it emerges from the terrible Chicago fire. Assuming its liabilities in Chicago at $3,000,000, which is an ample estimate, it could, from its cash capital and assets, liquidate its entire obligations and have remaining over two and a half millions."

Major Whitner, of this city, is General Agent for the States of Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, Florida, and Mississippi. He is a gentleman of high character, whom we commend unreservedly. He is worthy of the confidence reposed in him by the Home to adjust and settle all losses in his department, independently of the home office. And this is certainly an excellent feature of the Home Insurance Company.

OUR FAIR.—Our fair closed Friday evening. Under all the circumstances, it was a fine success.

Mrs. McDonald, of McIntosh, exhibited a number of articles which are worthy of honorable mention.

We noticed specimens of blackberry wine, orange preserves, plain biscuits and corn bread, that were worthy of a special premium. She also exhibited a barrel of superior cane syrup.

The largest yield of sweet potatoes per acre was that reported by Allen McDonald, of McIntosh county, four hundred bushels, but owing to a mistake, a sample of the potatoes failed to get here in time.

The following premiums omitted in our regular premium list were recommended by the several committees:

Best cast steel subsoil plow, diploma; Withers and Jones.
Best display of slate mantels, diploma; L. B. Langford.
Best samples of cotton stalks, diploma; D. Dixon.
Best poem, "Atlanta as It Is and Atlanta as It Was," diploma; Mrs. L. Rutherford.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—Having information that the Atlantic Fire Insurance Company of New York, in consequence of the Chicago losses, has been compelled to suspend, I would inform all parties holding policies in said company, issued at my agency, that I have transferred the same to other solvent companies, without any loss to them. Failing to see, personally, all policy holders in said company, I would hereby request them to bring their policies to my office.

From reliable information from different sources, I would assure the public of the solvency of my remaining companies, which sustained losses at Chicago. The Joseph Woods estate in Nashville, has been sold. The house was sold to Colonel A. S. Colyar for $17,200.

Mr. George Love, Jr., of Sumner county, was accidentally killed a few days ago by the accidental discharge of his gun.

The body of John Norman, (crazy John,) was found early on the morning of the 18th, two miles above Concord, literally torn to pieces, probably all the freight trains had run over his body.

Captain Leftwich, a well known cavalry officer in the late war, was instantly killed in Sparta last Monday by being stabbed to the heart by Richard Wilhite. About ten car loads of compressed cotton are daily shipped from Nashville.—Nashville Banner.

The movement of the mechanics and manufacturers of Nashville, against competition convict labor, is growing. A mass meeting of the mechanics and manufacturers of the State has been called, to meet at Nashville. The Grand Lodge, Tennessee, Good Templars, is holding a fine meeting in Nashville.

Humorous.

A Chicago policeman poisoned a dog. His master—the dog's—twisted his ear—the policeman's—and he now wears his eye—the man does—in a sling.

The pitiable plea of the defendant in a breach of promise case in Iowa is that he "was in earnest about marrying the girl until he got that rheumatist."

We read of a girl who was lately choked to death by her lover's encircling arms. This is a warning to ladies to keep their alabaster necks out of (h)arms way.

An Iowa school teacher has been dismissed for kissing the big girls. The girls say the school board had no right to interfere with their studies in that way.

The latest invention in advertising is that of a Hartford patent medicine man, who has sheared his dog, and painted on the animal the name of his universal cure.

"I wish you had been Eve," said an urchin to a stingy old aunt, proverbial for her meanness. "Why so?" "Because," said he, "you would have eaten all the apple, instead of dividing it."

A young countryman shopping in Lawrence, Mass., stole a ride on the sprinkler of the watering cart, evidently not knowing how the old thing worked. The driver pulled the valve lever, and the countryman rose about three feet into the air, coming down wetter but wiser.

The Real Practical Question.

Mr. Stephens' motion to disregard the disqualifying clause of the 14th Amendment, in the election of a Senator to Congress, presents to the people of Georgia the simple question whether it is best to be represented in the Senate, and thus cast their vote that might avail to arrest further Radical usurpations; or whether they will "throw themselves upon their dignity" and refuse to elect any man because the Amendment unjustly restricts them in their choice. Can we ever hope to overthrow accomplished usurpation, or to arrest new aggression, if we do not actively oppose it? Will the very few Northern Democratic Senators be soonest able to make successful fight for the Constitution and the rights of the States and the people, with or without help from the South? Do we loathe and groan under the tyranny of a Radical Government? How can we expect to overthrow it if we we leave the fight in Congress to the Democrats of the North alone? Do we want to see the South restored to her rightful share and influence in the Federal Government? How can we effect it by sullenly refusing to participate in its councils, or availing ourselves of the opportunity to combat the vindictive and oppressive policy of Northern Radicalism?

Mr. Stephens' precedent from British Parliamentary history is wholly inapplicable to our case, as every reflecting man will see without argument. His course in making daily, unceasing, uncompromising war upon the Northern Democrats, and at the same time advising the people of Georgia to pursue a policy that will deprive them of the opportunity to fight Radicalism in Congress, is a very strange freak for a Southern Democrat, to say the least of it. We are convinced that the people of Georgia will not be guided by such counsels.—Columbus Enquirer.

European Armies.

A series of tables, showing the strength, cost, etc., of the various armies of Europe, has just been published at Vienna. We extract from these tables the following particulars which show the actual force that each country has at its disposal in time of war:

Russia—Forty-seven divisions of infantry and 10 of cavalry, 8 brigades of rifles and reserve, 149 regiments of Cossacks, 219 batteries of artillery, and 50 of mitrailleuses, making altogether 862,000 men, 181,000 horses, and 2,084 guns. (This includes the troops in the Caucasus, Siberia and Turkestan.)

Germany—Eighteen corps, including 37 divisions of infantry and 10 of cavalry, and 337 batteries of artillery. This force numbers 824,990 men, 95,738 horses and 2,022 guns.

Austria—Thirteen corps, including 40 divisions of infantry and 5 of cavalry, and 205 batteries of artillery and mitrailleuses. The total force is 7,33,926 men and 58,125 horses, with 1,600 guns and 190 mitrailleuses.

England—Army in process of reorganization.

Turkey—Six corps of Nizam, (regulars,) 12 corps of redifs (reserves) and 132 batteries, making 253,289 men, 34,835 horses and 732 guns.

Italy—Four corps, with 40 infantry and 6 cavalry brigades, and 90 batteries. Total force, 415,200 men, 12,858 horses and 720 guns.

France—Ten corps, with 32 infantry and 12 cavalry divisions, and 140 batteries. Total force, 456,740, men, 49,995 horses and 984 guns (including mitrailleuses.)

Belgium—145,000 men, 7,000 horses and 152 guns.

Holland—35,384 regulars, 87,000 malitia, 5,200 horses and 108 guns.

Switzerland—160,000 men, 2,700 horses and 278 guns.

Roumania—106,000 men, 15,075 horses and 90 guns.

Servia—107,000 men, 4,000 horses, 194 guns.

Greece—125,000 men, 1,000 horses, 48 guns.

Sweden—(including Norway) 61,604 men, 8,500 horses, 222 guns.

Denmark—31,916 men, 2,120 horses, 96 guns.

Spain—144,938 men, 30,252 horses, 456 guns.

Portugal—64,320 men, 6,320 horses, 96 guns.

From the above data it appears that the total of the forces available for war purposes in Europe (taking the English disposable force at 470,779 men and 436 guns) is 5,164,-000 men, 512,204 horses, 10,324 guns, and about 900 mitrailleuses.

CHEROKEE PILLS NO. 2.
For the Removal of Obstructions and the Insurance of Regularity in the Recurrence of Monthly Periods

THESE PILLS are an unfailing Female Regulator, intended for special cases; those obstinate ones where milder and cheaper medicines fail.

They are composed of the most active and powerful principles of plants, roots and berries, so highly concentrated that each pill contains more medical strength than a whole box or bottle of ordinary dollar medicine in the market. Although powerful, yet so mild and pleasant in their operation, that the most feeble can take them with perfect safety.

☞ They may be safely used at any age, and at any period, except during the First Three Months, during which the unfailing nature of their effects would infallibly prevent pregnancy.

☞ All letters seeking information or advice will be promptly, freely and discreetly answered.

☞ Sent by mail, free of postage, on receipt of price, $5, per box.

☞ The Cherokee Pills No. 2 are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of this; those which they can purchase at a cheap price and make more money. As you value your health do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these $5 pills, and take no other. If the Druggist will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter and we will send them to you by mail, free of postage, securely sealed from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms, and write post office, county, State and name of writer, and enclose postage stamp for reply.

☞ We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet, entitled "MAN AND WOMAN AS INVALIDS," to every reader of this paper. Address as follows:

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR!

LIVER DISEASE and Indigestion prevail to a greater extent than probably any other malady, and relief is always anxiously sought after. If the Liver is Regulated in its action, health is almost invariably secured. A CARD TO OIL BURNERS.
BEING the manufacturers of more than four fifths of the Kerosene Oil used in Atlanta and vicinity, (as well as through the entire South,) we think best to inform our customers that the recent inspection of oil in Atlanta (reported below Government fire test) either do not refer to our brand, or are incorrect, or are fraudulent.
We know our business as manufacturers, and shall stand behind our products at all times. We sell no oil which will not bear proper inspection, and hence are not to be alarmed, and we defy any one, and every one, in law or out of law, in business competition or out of it, whether from Georgia or New York, to establish any just claim against our oil.
We shall continue to sell through our agents, Messrs. Carley, Duck & Co., of Atlanta, a better quality of Kerosene, and for lower prices, than any other Refinery in the United States can afford, and the doors of all our warehouses, whether in Louisville, Nashville, Memphis, New Orleans, Mobile, or Atlanta, are always open to Inspectors, whether appointed by City, State, or United States, each of which Inspectors we welcome, but all of whom we defy.
